The present reference request for 2 peons permanently has therefore to be considered not as an application for the entertainment of two additional peons permanently The Scale of Officers & clerical Establishment and the number of peons &c in the D Gl's office is noted in file The need for an addition to the number of peons seems to be admitted

Office of the Inspector General of Education in Mysore, Bangalore, 7 November 1910

Con 73-10
SL-S

Dear Sir,

Your letter No 3602 / Ed 73-10 dated the 29th ultimo - In reply to the enquiry contained therein, I have to state that before his retirement Mr Vasudevaiya had only one orderly as the office menial staff was comparatively undermanned Even this one he sent over as soon as Mr Reddy took over charge of his appointment as Assistant in November 1908 Subsequently two orderlies were sanctioned for Mr Reddy and Mr Vasudevaiya's orderly was kept in the office as it was found very difficult to carry on work with the small number of peons available foreffice work He has had no oraerly since then

Mr. Reddy's orderlies were with him till September 1909 when he was transferred to Mysore They were sent over to the Educational Museum in May 1910 So it is clear that no orderlies are available for service under Mr Krishnaswami Iyenger Leaving out the

Duffadar, five peons on duty with me, the peon attached to the Educational Library, the Dafterband, and the watchman, there are only four peons for work in the office It is not possible to spare any out of these for duty with the Assistant

7 According to the scale of menial servants sanctioned by Government in their Order No 6620-45 / G M 236-07-1 of the 13th May 1908, no Assistant to the Head of a department has been given less than two orderlies to attend upon him, while the two Assistants to the Revenue Commissioner have between them six

Since no additional expense was incurred and no increase was made to the number of menial servants in the office even at the revision of 30th May 1907, the two orderlies I recommended for my Assistant need not be considered extravagant

Set under is a comparative statement of the menial staff of my office and that of the Inspector General of Police which is entirely to our advantage
